

After School Program 2017 – 2018

Saint John's offers an after school program. The student must be registered in the program to attend. This is a school activity and students must follow all school policies.

Time

The program runs daily from 2:30 PM until 6:00 PM.

On days when there is early dismissal the program begins at 12:00 PM and lunch will be served.

Dismissal and Pick-up

Students will be released ONLY to a parent or a person designated specified in writing by the parent on the registration form.

Students must be signed out daily by a parent or the adult specified by the parent.

Any child picked up AFTER 6:00 PM will be charged a $25 late pick-up fee.
Consistent late pick-ups may be excluded from the program at the discretion of the principal.

This program is supervised by faculty members and adults associated with the school. In addition we have a partnership with Manhattan College for students as part of their financial aid package (work / study).

This program has two components;

1. Homework Help
 - a. Homework help is given everyday. However, parents are still required to check their child's homework everyday to ensure that it is complete and accurate.
2. Recreational Activities
 - a. Sports, games, art, etc.

COST

- Registration Fee $25 per child (cash)
- $250 per month per child / 1st child
- $200 for each sibling
 - all billing through SMART
- $25 EMERGENCY Fee (need help for a day) payable next morning in cash.

Program Begins Monday, September 11, 2017
Program Ends Wednesday, June 13, 2018
